

Collembola

This bug is found crawling over mine timbers

Its common name is the Springtail.
It lives near the entrance to the mine.

Beetle

The beetles found in the coalmine are called Myceatea hirta and Lithostygnus serripennis.

Name	Collembola or 'Springtail'	Name	Beetle
Habitat	Soil / vegetation debris	Habitat	The bugs are found in areas of the mine that have permanent light.
Diet	Collembola eat fungi	Diet	The beetles in the coal mine eat wood
Special features & creepy facts	They find their way using special senses, such as heat detection. They have a sort of tail that allows them to spring out of harm's way. This gives them the name Springtail.	Special features & creepy facts	There are 350,000 different types of beetle in the world!